

Klove is a strong support system to our children and our family, we enjoy there wonderful christian music. Our family and friends would not have the music that we enjoy if it is replaced with LPFM and there programming. I believe that Klove is of public interest to our community by the strong moral values they support and believe in to, encourage young people and old to live a better life.